Section 106 money and POS for Castlethorpe Rd development re meeting on 17 October – agreement on ‘type’ of open space: Initially open spaces to be managed by a management company was suggested but it was agreed that they would be adopted by the Parish Council. An agreement needs to be made of the financial compensation required for this to take place. Cllr Palmer proposed that the majority of large area be woodland / wildflower meadow. All agreed.

Cllr Palmer confirmed that there will be a legal covenant to protect the land closest to the school to used for any other purpose than by the primary school. It was also confirmed that the money set aside for primary education will be ringfenced for use by Hanslope Primary School only.

17.372 Representation of PC at forthcoming Long Street Road appeal: It was resolved to nominate Cllr Geary to represent the Parish Council at the appeal. He will be assisted by Cllr Price and Cllr Palmer when available. Robert Greenwood, the author of the highways report presented at the original DCC meeting, is unavailable to attend the appeal. Cllr Geary has spoken to him regarding the content of the report and will put points forward.

Cllr Geary suggested that we request the site visit be delayed in order for the traffic situation to return to normal after the roadworks.

Update will be given in the December meeting.

17.373 Councillor areas of responsibility (sub-committee members, reps on other bodies) Moved to December agenda.

17.374 Recreation ground redevelopment – award of contract: This will be moved to the December meeting. If action is required before that date an extra ordinary meeting will be held.

17.376 NDP briefing on developments: Meeting took place on 1st November attending by Neil Homer and Diane Webber. Sub groups to meet later in the month. Update in the December meeting.

17.377 Update on website development and discussion of other issues re communication: Go live date 1st December 2017.

17.378 Christmas Tree and Lights: Being stored at Cllr Courtman's farm. Will be put up by volunteers at the beginning of December. The reindeer will not be replaced.

17.379 Councillor vacancies: There are now 3 vacancies. We will continue to advertise the vacancies with a new 'recruitment drive' to be launched in January. Further discussion in the next meeting.

17.380 Village maintenance issues: The following incidents were discussed in this section:

- ANPR Signs – miscommunication meant that these have not been ordered. Cllr Courtman to Speak to Phil Ayres regarding ordering these signs as agreed in previous meeting.
- A pedestrian has been injured at the location of the roadworks on Long Street Road. Cllr Geary to follow up.
- Devils Dip continues to be closed with a diversion through Castlethorpe. This is causing significant disruption to local residents especially considering the other local roadworks. We will do our best to keep people informed.

- Cllr Geary / Clerk to follow up as to why we are not being informed about major roadworks in a timely manner.
- Bins by the shop overflowing – clerk to contact AH Contracts regarding frequency of services.

17.381 Correspondence received by the clerk not covered above: We have received a complaint from a resident in Weston Drive regarding an inconsiderately parked vehicle. Cllr Courtman will contact the local police representative and the resident concerned – clerk to forward details of the resident.

Meeting concluded at 22:00
